

City of St. Charles

I L L I N O I S

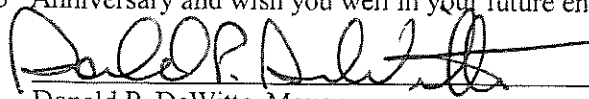

Proclamation

KANE COUNTY ASSOCIATION FOR HOME AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

- WHEREAS, This current organization was founded in 1916 and was then called Farm Bureau of Kane County and was an information and teaching club for all farmers' wives where they learned how to grow and preserve all the food from their gardens; and
- WHEREAS, later on it expanded and is now known as Kane County Association for Home and Community Education and is an all-volunteer, non-profit association for adults of all ages to come together to share continuing education lessons, community service projects, and social networking; and
- WHEREAS, Kane County Association for Home and Community Education improves the quality of life through better choices made with the latest information, provides fun activities and a valued network of members and educators to enrich life, connects you to your community through satisfying community service projects, and promotes leadership opportunities within a unit and with the HCE Board; and
- WHEREAS, Kane County Association for Home and Community Education has ten units of which St. Charles is the second largest unit; and
- WHEREAS, their mission statement is to enhance the lives of individuals and families through quality educational programs and experiences encouraging responsible leadership and service to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Donald P. DeWitte, Mayor of the City of St. Charles, along with the City Council, and on behalf of all the people in our community, offer our congratulations to Kane County Association for Home and Community Education (formerly Kane County Farm Bureau) in celebrating your 95th Anniversary and wish you well in your future endeavors!

SEAL

Donald P. DeWitte, Mayor